WELCOME

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Tobin Center for the Performing Arts and Ballet San Antonio's production of The Nutcracker.

We are honored to return to the stage this season, a privilege we no longer take for granted. The challenges of the past year have humbled us, but your support, through your presence and your contributions, allows us to be on stage this season, performing for you, our greatest joy.

A special thank you to you, our patrons, and to the staff, board of directors and dancers of Ballet San Antonio and to H-E-B and to the Tobin Center for the Performing Arts, all without whom this production would not be possible.

On behalf of all of us at Ballet San Antonio, thank you for being here with us and please enjoy the show.

Sincerely,

Evin Nicole Eubanks

EASTON SMITH

CHOREOGRAPHER

Easton began his professional career at the age of 17 with the renowned director and choreographer Michael Smuin. During his seven years with Smuin Ballet, he recreated numerous leading roles from Michael's tenure as Director of San Francisco Ballet, as well as originating many roles created for him by Michael at Smuin Ballet. Smith would go on to work as a leading male dancer for the Sacramento Ballet, as well as Ballet San Jose where he met his wife, Haley.

Easton and Haley joined the cast of the pre-Broadway tour of Dirty Dancing where Easton performed the leading role of Johnny Castle, as well as in the ensemble. Easton then joined the Broadway cast of Billy Elliot in New York City as Older Billy. After his work on Broadway, Easton and Haley decided to return to ballet and were invited to work with Ballet West under the direction of Adam Sklute as a Soloist. During his time with Ballet West, Easton also choreographed multiple pieces for the highly-acclaimed Innovations Program.

Easton has had the opportunity to work with some of the most influential choreographers, repetiteurs, teachers, and directors of our time.

After his retirement in 2013, Smith became a commercial helicopter pilot focusing on private executive charters, production, and aerial firefighting for the United States Forestry Service. During that time, he also held the title of President of Coastal Helicopters, an aviation company based in the Los Angeles area.

Smith now has a successful Real Estate Group at the number one market center of the world's leading brokerage.

HALEY HENDERSON SMITH

CHOREOGRAPHER

Haley grew up in Southern California where she trained with Clarissa Boeriu. At the age of 17, she received a contract with the Royal Danish Ballet and continued dancing there for six and a half seasons. While there, Haley had the privilege of creating roles in multiple works by Alexei Ratmansky, John Nuemier, and Tim Rushton, among others.

After dancing as a guest artist with American Ballet Theatre during their 2006 Metropolitan Opera House season, Haley danced for two seasons with Ballet San Jose, where she met her husband, Easton. From there they joined the cast of the pre-Broadway tour of Dirty Dancing where Haley performed in the ensemble and the lead character Penny.

After training in New York City with David Howard, Willy Buhrman, and Nancy Bielski, Haley joined Ballet West as a soloist in 2010 and was promoted to rank of principle in 2013. While at Ballet West she danced the full range of leading roles with the company including the principle woman in Balanchine's Diamonds and Odette/Odile in Swan Lake. She also originated roles in works by Nicolo Fonte, Jodie Gates, Val Caniporoli, and Easton Smith. Haley was also a world ambassador for Gaynor Minden pointe shoes and featured in Dance Magazine's women's issue in 2012.

TO MY SISTER, KEZIA

A Tribute from Haley Henderson Smith

Growing up, my sister Kezia loved ballet. She convinced me to take some classes, but I soon quit because it was so boring. Kezia continued dancing however, and one day the news came that she would be receiving her first pair of pointe shoes. This development quickly changed my mind--maybe I could stick with the boring classes long enough to get pointe shoes myself! We began ballet classes at a professional ballet school and performed in our first Nutcracker together that year. Ballet was our life from that point on--classes and rehearsals 6 days a week, annual summer ballet programs, and of course, the yearly Nutcracker. Through ballet we learned discipline, repetition, persistence, and perseverance. In the studio we laughed together, cried together, and lovingly supported each other. I looked up to my sister in every way and she always took care of me. We danced together until we each had the opportunity to join a professional ballet company. Although Kezia's unbelievable talent took her on a journey that departed from ballet to a career as a makeup artist, esthetician, and finally a small business owner, she applied the principles we learned in ballet to everything she did and excelled beyond all limitations. She went on to bless her gorgeous daughters, Ava and Violet, with her loving example and was a rock for her husband and soul mate, Chris, through their 20 years of marriage.

That is why this production of The Nutcracker is dedicated to my beautiful, hilarious, compassionate, devoted sister who passed away in May of this year. This Nutcracker season we celebrate her life and the many lives that are forever blessed by her presence. To my sister and my best friend, now and always. I love you Kezia.

MOTHER GINGER

This year, Ballet San Antonio is honoring those who have served on the front lines of the COVID-19 pandemic. As a way to say thank you from our community, we want to put our front line workers center stage in our largest show of the year, The Nutcracker.

We were deeply touched to receive so many heartwarming stories about our community’s frontline heroes and the work they do for our city. It was not an easy decision to pick only 8 people. To all our nominees, you all have done, and continue to do, a tremendous job, and on behalf of all of us at Ballet San Antonio, we want you to know that each of you are deeply appreciated.
